How Does This Work?

- Each group has a leader or two to frame, capture and galvanize deliverables
- Interested or selected members of these groups gather at the opening reception. Look for the table with the name you've signed up for on SCHED (the scheduling application/website that houses all of the conference agenda information).

Each of the SIAGs will meet three times:

1. At the opening reception (5:00 pm) and for an informal dinner gathering on Wednesday, June 21
2. Briefly at cocktail party on the Thursday, June 22 (5:00 pm)
3. During a 50 minute session in the Ballroom before closing General Session (2:30 pm - 3:20 pm) Friday, June 23

Deliverable:

- We’ll ask for a one-page summary from each group leader that identifies personal and collective commitments, what major levers and strategies can improve main challenges and what the three deliverables are between now and June 2018 for the top priorities to tackle first.

Intercultural Training: From Awareness to Competence—the RWS Tool Kit for Intercultural Competence and Personal and Professional Development
-Melinda Cain

The Real World Solutions tool kit teaches more than “what” to do (or not do) in cultural situations; it provides the “why” behind cultural behavior so one can respond appropriately in any situation. The training will help students learn to build bridges among cultures in order to enhance personal and professional productivity and improve outcomes. Students will be able to address cultural challenges with real world solutions and “live and work better together.”

First Gen Professional and Life Skills: Making Impressions, Personal Branding, Telling Your Story
-Adrian Rosado; Rocio Perez; & Erin McClarty

Three First Gen rock stars will arm students with critical techniques for personal and professional development. Adrian Rosado will focus on the qualities needed to become a successful networker. Students will identify strategies for communicating with purpose and keying in on opportunities for synergy between individuals. Rocio Perez will discuss the power of communication and personal branding, gaining essential knowledge about exuding an executive presence, the importance of appearance, connecting more effectively with others, and making a first and lasting impression that inspires others energetically. Erin McClarty will teach students how to tap into their superpowers by re-framing their stories of past adversities into narratives of personal triumph, highlighting the unique contributions they can make in any environment.

How Does This Work?
- Each group has a leader or two to frame, capture and galvanize deliverables
- Interested or selected members of these groups gather at the opening reception. Look for the table with the name you’ve signed up for on SCHED (the scheduling application/website that houses all of the conference agenda information).

Each of the SIAGs will meet three times:
1. At the opening reception (5:00 pm) and for an informal dinner gathering on Wednesday, June 21
2. Briefly at cocktail party on the Thursday, June 22 (5:00 pm)
3. During a 50 minute session in the Ballroom before closing General Session (2:30 pm - 3:20 pm) Friday, June 23

Deliverable:
- We’ll ask for a one-page summary from each group leader that identifies personal and collective commitments, what major levers and strategies can improve main challenges and what the three deliverables are between now and June 2018 for the top priorities to tackle first.
Goal

Step 2

Step 3

Step 4

Step 5

Step 6

For First-Gen GlobalMindED Scholars to advance and inform the inclusive outcomes on their campus

Advisor works with First-Gen GlobalMindED Scholars to identify 15 diverse First-Gen Students to join the GMED Campus Collaborative

GlobalMindED Collaborative meets bi-monthly to decide on campus goals for other First-Gen Students (ie. Spring Career Fair, Mentor Programs, Alumni First-Gen Networking Reception)

Meet quarterly with University President and Leadership team to inform and advance an inclusive agenda and policy

Identify one deliverable that GlobalMindED Campus Collaborative can create or can continue to open doors for other First-Gen Students on campus

Track and measure program results; report at GlobalMindED 2018

What is the GlobalMindED Campus Collaborative?

To improve, crystalize, and scale inclusive leadership at feeder districts, community colleges, and universities
