

COURAGEOUS CONVERSATIONS CATALYZING CHANGE

Wonder Women
of Healthcare

MONDAY, MARCH 29, 2021

1:00 PST, 2:00 MST, 3:00 CST, 4:00 EST

Dr. Monique ButlerDivision Chief Medical Officer, HCA, North Florida Div.*

Dr. Butler is Chief Medical Officer for a 408-bed level-1 trauma center. She has extensive experience creating hospital operational and quality improvements; and is very committed to the delivery of providing excellent care with every patient (and family) with every encounter. Dr. Butler was identified in Becker's Hospital Review as one of the 50 great African American leaders in healthcare to know in the nation.

Dr. Margie Ball CookColorado Council of Black Nurses*

Dr. Margie has spent a lifetime supporting the underserved and the extreme poor, across America as well as in several African countries. In 2019, Dr. Cook received the Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award for her lifelong commitment to building a stronger nation through volunteer service. At the CCBN, their mission is to grow the number of African American professional nurses by increasing college matriculation and successful graduation rates among Black and other underrepresented students in postsecondary education.

Dr. Lisa KiserClinical Assistant Professor, University of Arizona*

Dr. Kiser has been faculty at the U of A College of Nursing for ten years. Committed to health equity and improved access to healthcare along the border, Dr. Kiser is on faculty practice, working part-time as a women's health nurse-practitioner at a rural health center. She also volunteers at the Casa Alitas migrant welcome center and Clinica Amistad non-profit free clinic. Dr. Kiser helps to create global and border health learning opportunities for Nursing students by building collaborative relationships with clinics and nursing colleges in Mexico.

PANEL LEADER

Dr. Pierre TheodoreVP Global External Innovation, Johnson & Johnson*

Dr. Theodore is responsible to help accelerate innovation, advance the standard of care within early stage science, and to elevate existing and adjacent technologies. He is a Health Sciences Associate Professor of Surgery and at the University of California, San Francisco School of Medicine. Dr. Theodore has over two decades of experience in cardiothoracic surgery, surgical education, entrepreneurship and innovation.

Dr. Eliza ChinExec. Director, American Medical Women's Association*

An Asst. Clinical Professor of Medicine at UCSF, Dr. Chin has been an integral part of AMWA for over a decade. Working with women physician leaders is Eliza's passion, and she has a great interest in the history of women in medicine, publishing the anthology, This Side of Doctoring: Reflections from Women in Medicine. Dr. Chin was Asst. Professor of Medicine at Columbia for many years before relocating to CA where she continues to teach medical students and practice medicine part-time at Bayside Park, a long-term care facility.

Dr. Saya NagoriFounder, FemHealth*

Dr. Nagori has over ten years of experience as an eye doctor and is a published author in the field of Ophthalmology. Saya taught surgery to residents at the NYU Dept. of Ophthalmology for several years, and was well known for her work in telemedicine. Dr. Nagori has a wide range of expertise in advanced technologies for making patient care more accessible. She has been invited all over the country to give lectures and talks on a variety of topics at both academic centers and national conferences.

Carrie SiuButtCEO, SimpleHealth*

Carrie brings 20 years of strategy, finance, and operations experience to Simple Health. Previously, she held finance and strategy roles at Fortune 100 companies, including Bear Stearns, American Express, and MGM. She has been involved in the health and wellness industry for 10 years, previously working at Equinox Fitness Clubs, where she held various leadership positions. Combining passions for technology and wellness, Carrie led operations for LUMO Body Tech from Palo Alto and Row House (a NYC-based fitness studio chain).

REGISTER HERE!