GlobalMindED Offers Students and Leaders a Pathway to Prosperity
Attend Eleven-Year Anniversary Event Which Energizes Economic Mobility
15 Inclusive Leaders from Business, Government, Education, and Non-Profits to be Recognized

April 15, 2025 (Denver, CO): At a time of unprecedented change and challenge on college campuses, GlobalMindED invites leaders and students from many fields, industries, roles, and locations to participate in this timely, non-partisan topic that all can agree on: Employment Engines of Economic Mobility for Emerging Leaders: Pathways to a Prosperous Future. GlobalMindED connects students with limited resources of all ages to role models, mentors, internships, and jobs thereby helping firms find talent and helping students build a prosperous future. This June join over 1,000 influential leaders, including more than 400 renowned national and global experts from education, industry, government, philanthropy, and policy. Together, we will build meaningful connections, overcome pressing challenges, and empower all by bridging academic learning with real-world leadership that results in career success. Attend this year's Denver conference: June 16 has pre-conferences, the Student Leadership Program, and the Inclusive Leader Awards Dinner. June 17-18 has plenary sessions, over 90 breakouts, and the Industry Marketplace /Job Fair. View the preliminary conference program for more information. The event is open to the public. Join us as an individual, a company, a non-profit organization, an educational institution, or government agency. REGISTER now at <https://globalminded.org/2025-globalminded-conference/>

GlobalMindED 2025 addresses this timely theme by:

- Celebrating Inclusive Leader Award Winners across 15 sectors - <https://globalminded.org/inclusive-leader-awards/>
- Connecting educators and students directly to industry leaders for practical collaboration
- Creating robust career pathways to ensure a strong ROI on the college investment
- Establishing Higher Ed's role as an economic engine of prosperity even in the advent of AI
